

TMSS10CSV2Fixed

TMSS10CSV2Fixed converts a CSV file to a fixed length text file.

Synopsis

TMSS10CSV2Fixed [-?] [-v]

Options

There are no options.

Exit Status

- zero Program has ended successfully.
- non-zero Program has not ended successfully.

Environment

TMSSDELIMITER If defined the program will use a delimiter other than the default comma value. Allowable values are TAB, SEMI-COLON, COLON AND SPACE.

Examples

Comma Delimited CSV

Input File

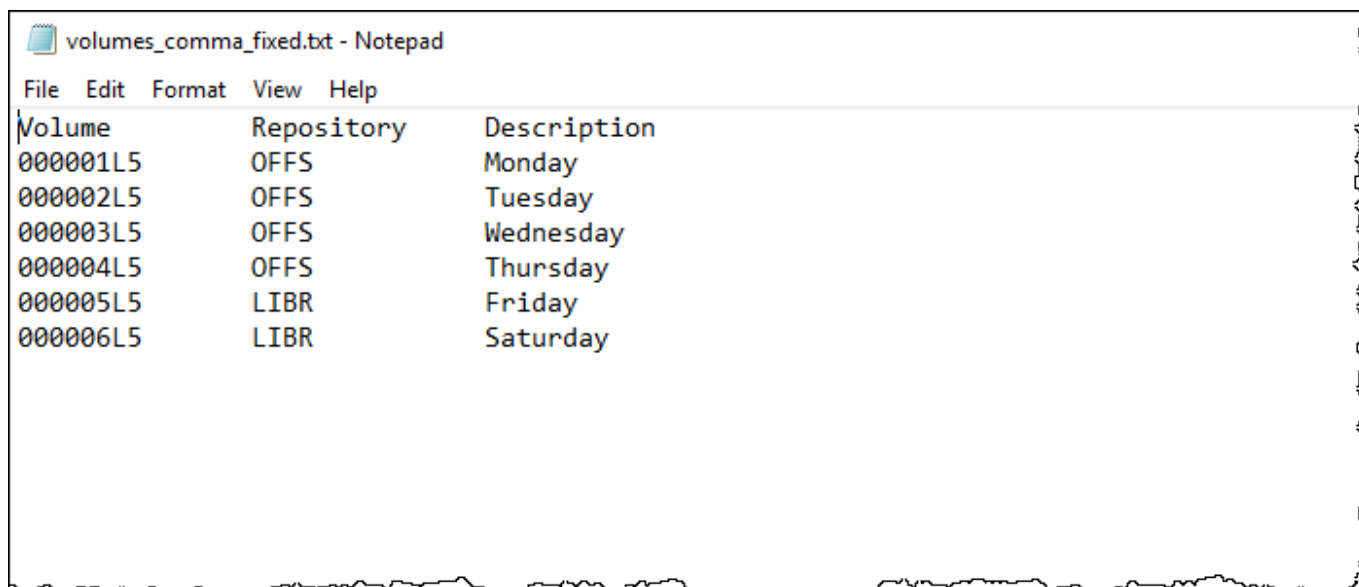

The screenshot shows a Notepad window titled 'volumes_comma.csv'. The menu bar includes File, Edit, Format, View, and Help. The text content is as follows:

```
Volume,Repository,Description
000001L5,OFFS,Monday
000002L5,OFFS,Tuesday
000003L5,OFFS,Wednesday
000004L5,OFFS,Thursday
000005L5,LIBR,Friday
000006L5,LIBR,Saturday
```

Command Line Syntax

```
<sxh> TMSS10CSV2Fixed 0 8 15 10 30 15 < volumes_comma.csv > volumes_comma_fixed.txt
</sxh>
```

Output

The screenshot shows a Notepad window titled 'volumes_comma_fixed.txt - Notepad'. The menu bar includes File, Edit, Format, View, and Help. The text content is as follows:

```
Volume      Repository    Description
000001L5    OFFS          Monday
000002L5    OFFS          Tuesday
000003L5    OFFS          Wednesday
000004L5    OFFS          Thursday
000005L5    LIBR          Friday
000006L5    LIBR          Saturday
```

From:
<https://docs.tapetrack.com/> - TapeTrack Documentation

Permanent link:
<https://docs.tapetrack.com/cli/tmss10csv2fixed?rev=1527122915>

Last update: 2025/01/21 22:07

