

Restore Previous Date

Adding a Restore Previous Date Simple Management Rule to a Repository will maintain the Next Move Date currently applied to the Volumes when moved to the Target Repository.

Creating The Rule

Select the required Customer and Media Type so that the Inventory is displayed in TapeMaster.

Select the Simple Management tab, right click and select Add.

Identity Tab

Add a description that matches the function or purpose of the rule.

Edit New Simple Management Rule

IdentityOptionsCalculations

Index/Description

Customer-ID

SC01

Sherbrooke

Index

0

Description

Next Move Date

Save

Cancel

Help

Options Tab

Add in filter values to limit the rule only functioning on the required Volumes.

In this example the target is LTO Volumes moving from TRAN to OFFS.

Edit New Simple Management Rule

IdentityOptionsCalculations

Active	True
Restore	False
Scope
Exclusion Days
Movement Direction
From Repository Filter	TRAN
To Repository Filter	OFFS
Volume Attributes
Media-ID Filter	LTO
Volume-ID Filter	*
DataCluster	<No Selection>

SaveCancelHelp

Calculations Tab

Set the Rule Type dropdown box to Restore Previous Date.

Edit New Simple Management Rule

Identity Options Calculations

Rule type Restore previous date

Run Prediction

Save Cancel Help

Save Rule

Click Save to commit the Simple Management Rule.

Enabling Simple Management Rule For Repository

Return to the Inventory tab.

Right-click on the Target Repository and select Properties.

Select the Options tab.

Set the option Force Simple Management to True and click Save to update.

update doco, simple management, next move

From:

<https://docs.tapetrack.com/> - TapeTrack Documentation

Permanent link:

https://docs.tapetrack.com/cookbook/simplemanagement/restore_previous_date

Last update:

2025/01/21 22:07

